

DIARY NOTES

DD/S

5 February 1958

1. Lunched with members of the Roads Committee of the McLean Citizens Association and Messrs. Kistner, Carper, and Talbot of the Virginia State Highway Commission. Although the matter is far from settled, it does appear that we are making progress in arriving at a scheme for handling our traffic during the construction period. Everyone seemed to be pleased with the approach we are taking in trying to arrive at a plan which we all agree is the best under the circumstances. H

2. [REDACTED] brought in for a brief chat a Mr. [REDACTED] who has been [REDACTED] communications man and is being recommended for promotion to grade GS-15. I was well impressed with him.

3. General [REDACTED] called me about the [REDACTED] case. He didn't think that any good would come out of the investigation and seemed a little reluctant to proceed with it. We discussed the matter at some length. I told him that I felt exactly the same way and had been very reluctant to send it to the Inspector General but that inasmuch as Mr. [REDACTED] seemed determined to push this matter I thought I had no alternative. However, I also said that if it were felt that this case was not worth an investigation by the Inspector General's Staff and he and Kirk wanted me to handle it within command channels I would attempt to do so.

Mr. Dulles:

25X1C8c

Noted a letter he had received from [REDACTED] liaison channel in Washington pointing up recent leaks in the U.S. press on Soviet achievements in guided missiles, possible firings of such missiles by the Russians, etc. After some discussion it was agreed that the reply should be coordinated with the members of USCIB. Mr. Sheldon undertook to prepare an interim response for DCI's approval and also send [REDACTED] a summary of the Dean letter together with our reply through appropriate Commo channel.

Mr. Wisner:

Raised the question as to whether or not he should visit [REDACTED]. The Director commented he would leave this decision to DD/P but would prefer a very short trip at this time in view of Mr. Wisner's forthcoming trip to the Far East.
